FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BGMU RECEIVES AWARDS AT WATER PROFESSIONALS CONFERENCE

(Bowling Green, Ky.) BGMU received awards at the Water Professionals Conference August 18-21 in Louisville, Kentucky. Employee Dewayne Hines, Collection System Maintenance Foreman, was awarded the Golden Manhole Award. This award recognizes one individual from both Kentucky and Tennessee who have dedicated their careers to the wastewater collection field and have made outstanding contributions in the area of wastewater collection systems.

Daniel Young, Assistant Water/Wastewater Superintendent, was recognized for completing the Water Professionals Leadership Academy (WPLA). The WPLA was established to identify and develop the next generation of leaders in the water industry. The development process occurs through training sessions and team building activities that incorporate personal and professional development. The Academy's aim is to prepare the best and brightest for water industry leadership roles.

BGMU's Wastewater Treatment Plant (WWTP) received the Operational Excellence Award for the ninth consecutive year for calendar year 2018. This award is given annually to publicly owned and industrial wastewater treatment facilities that have achieved permit compliance during the previous calendar year.

BGMU's water and wastewater treatment systems are staffed by professionals in engineering, operations, maintenance, industrial systems and instrumentation systems.
